Call to Worship

Feel free to follow along with our Call to Worship from the live-streamed worship service on Sunday.

One: Led by the Holy Spirit, we come to this place.

Many: God has given us this haven where we may bring our hopes, our fears, our doubts, our wonder.

One: Led by the Holy Spirit, we will gather at the Table.

Many: Jesus has come to be with us in our lives, to feed us with grace and peace.

One: Led by the Holy Spirit, we will go to serve God's people.

Many: There is no distinction between "us" and "them;" we are sisters and brothers in God's family.

Song of the Week

O Worship the King, All Glorious Above!

Text: Robert Grant, 1833

O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
our shield and defender, the Ancient of Days,
pavilioned in splendor and girded with praise.

O tell of his might and sing of his grace,
whose robe is the light, whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Your bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
it streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
and sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in you do we trust, nor find you to fail.
Your mercies, how tender, how firm to the end,
our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

O measureless Might, unchangeable Love, whom angels delight to worship above!
Your ransomed creation, with glory ablaze,
in true adoration shall sing to your praise!
