

Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! Wherever you spent your Easter day, and whatever you found yourself doing, I pray that you felt the joy of the Easter Resurrection in your heart. Like I said during our worship service today: we don't have to get all gussied up in our Sunday finest clothes, we don't have to fill the sanctuary with lilies, we don't have to fine-tune all the details - little or big - in order for Christ to be raised. He already is, and it happened in a quiet tomb, with no witnesses, no fanfare, no pomp and grandeur. Easter happens every day, friends: whenever we choose hope over despair and love over hate we are experiencing the promises of resurrection. Don't believe that it's a once-a-year event, because it isn't. It's an every day, every second, every breath event. So whatever is going on in your life right now, remember that resurrection is the promise, meaning the struggles and concerns of the world are temporary and will one day be deemed. We are an Easter People. He is Risen!

Halleluia!
