Community Prayer

O God of the covenant, the cloud of your splendor and the fire of your love revealed your Son on the mountain heights. Transform our lives in his image, write your law of love on our hearts, and make us prophets of your glory, that we may lead others into your presence. Amen.

Call to Worship

One: On glory's mountaintops of wonder and delight, we wait:

Many: for God's amazing grace to transform our shadowed lives.

One: In the valleys of everyday life, where noise overwhelms us, we wait:

Many: willing to waste time simply being in God's presence.

One: In the devouring fires of fear, in the mist of misguided living, we wait,

Many: for the One who comes in majesty, to lead us down the paths of humility.

From The Rev. Kara Hillhouse

Matthew 17:1-9

Get Up and Don't Be Afraid

Our scripture this week finds three of the disciples with Jesus on the mountaintop, when he suddenly became "transfigured" before them. The voice of God came out of the heavens, and the disciples fell down in fear. But Jesus touched them and said "get up and do not be afraid." The Greek word for transfiguration comes from the same root word as "metamorphosis" --an outward change in appearance that comes from an inner deepening beauty. In this case, a divinity that could not be contained within Jesus' body, but pushed through to alter his external appearance. There are times in our own lives when God's beauty pushes through, revealing itself to us in ways that feel like an "a-ha" moment, or even a punch to the gut. It can be scary; it can knock us off-kilter; but God reminds us not to fear him or his confusing presence. But unlike Jesus' command to the disciples to "tell no one" what they saw, we are called to share God's often-surprising presence with the world. Join us for worship, for a time of setting aside all the things that take our focus away from God's beauty, and worshiping the One who gives us Life. We'll see you at First!

Psalms 99

“The Lord is king; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake! The Lord is great in Zion; he is exalted over all the peoples. Let them praise your great and awesome name. Holy is he! Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob. Extol the Lord our God; worship at his footstool. Holy is he! Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel also was among those who called on his name. They cried to the Lord, and he answered them. He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud; they kept his decrees, and the statutes that he gave them. O Lord our God, you answered them; you were a forgiving God to them, but an avenger of their wrongdoings. Extol the Lord our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the Lord our God is holy.”

Matthew 17:1-9

“Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, ‘Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.’ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!’ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, ‘Get up and do not be afraid.’ And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, ‘Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.’ ”

Exalt the LORD our God,
and worship at his holy mountain;
for the LORD our God is holy!

Arise, Your Light Is Come

Arise, your light is come! The Spirit's call obey; show forth the glory of your God, which shines on you today.

Arise, your light is come! Fling wide the prison door; proclaim the captives' liberty, good tidings to the poor.

Arise, your light is come! All you in sorrow born, bind up the brokenhearted ones and comfort those who mourn.

Arise, your light is come! The mountains burst in song! Rise up like eagles on the wing; God's power will make us strong.
